SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI
1894
1735-1803

BY-LAWS

OF THE

MISSOURI SOCIETY.

NAME.

This organization shall be known as the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri, and is a part of the General Society of Colonial Wars, and its headquarters shall be in the City of St. Louis, Missouri.

OFFICERS.

II.—The officers of the Society, to be elected annually from the members of the Society, shall be a Governor, a Deputy-Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor, a Secretary, a Deputy-Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, an Historian, and a Chaplain. These officers, excepting the Historian, Deputy-Secretary and Chaplain, shall be ex-officio members of the Council; and in addition the Council shall be composed of nine other persons.

FEES AND DUES.

III.—The initiation fee shall be five dollars. The annual dues, payable on or before January 1st of each year, shall be five dollars. The payment at one time of $75 shall constitute life membership, and shall exempt the member so paying from annual dues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

IV.—Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor:

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of the

Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13th, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19th, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General or member of the Council or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy-Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council or legislative body in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy-Governor, or member of the Council or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

(d) Governor, Deputy-Governor, Governor's Assistant or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

V.—Members shall be elected as follows: A candidate must be proposed by one member of the Society and seconded by another. The candidate, or his proposers, shall send his name and documents or other proof of qualifications to the Secretary, who shall transmit them to the Membership Committee. The Committee shall carefully investigate the same. If the candidate be a resident within the jurisdiction of another State Society, the said Committee shall, through the Secretary, obtain the consent of the Council of such State Society before making favorable report. Upon favorable report by the Committee, the Council of this Society may elect him by ballot.

A candidate receiving two negative votes shall fail of election.

Payment of the initiation fees and dues shall be a prerequisite of membership.

GOVERNOR.

VI.—The Governor, or in his absence the Deputy-Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, or in their absence a chairman pro tem., shall exercise the duties of presiding officer at all meetings of the Society, under the usual rules of parliamentary laws, subject to an appeal to the Society. He shall have power to convene the Council at his discretion or upon the written request of two members of the Council, or upon the like request of five members of the Society.

SECRETARY.

VII.—The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all elected candidates of their admission, and perform such other duties as the Society or his office may require. He shall have charge of the seal, by-laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society, other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same to the members to whom they may be issued. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership. He shall certify all acts of the Society, and, when required, authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of printing and publications issued by the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all Courts of the Society and of the Council. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Council, and shall give notice to each officer who may be affected by them of all votes, resolutions and proceedings of the Society or of the Council, and at the General Court, or oftener; shall report the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership and those whose resignations have been accepted, and of those members who have been expelled. In his absence from any meeting, the Deputy-Secretary shall act, or a Secretary pro tem. may be designated therefor.

TREASURER.

VIII.—The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and as often as those funds shall amount to Fifty Dollars, they shall be deposited in some bank in the City of St. Louis, which shall be designated by the Council, to the credit of the Society of Colonial Wars, in the State of Missouri, and such funds shall be drawn thence on the checks of the Treasurer for the purpose of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or Council, or his office may require. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society. For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the Society may deem proper.

REGISTRAR.

IX.—The Registrar shall receive from the Society and file all the proofs upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas countersigned by him, and all documents which the Society may obtain, and he, under the direction of the Council, shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

HISTORIAN.

X.—The Historian shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemoration celebrations of the Society. And he shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Society may see fit to publish. Also a necrological list of each year, and biographies of deceased members.

CHAPLAIN.

XI.—The Chaplain shall be an ordained minister of a Christian Church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

THE COUNCIL.

XII.—The Council shall meet as often as required, or at the call of the Governor, or at the call of the Secretary, or at the written request of two of its members. Three shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall have control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. They may accept the resignation of any member of the Society. At the General Court, they shall submit to the Society a report of their proceedings during the past year. The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any members of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears, and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days, and on being dropped his membership shall cease; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application, and the payment of all such arrears from the date when he was dropped to the date of his restoration. The Council may suspend any officer for cause, which must be reported to the Society, and action taken on the same within sixty days.

COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP.

XIII.—The Committee on Membership shall consist of five members. They shall be chosen by ballot at the General Court of the Society, and shall be elected for a period of one year. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and a negative vote of two members shall cause an adverse report to the Council on the candidate's application. A candidate who has been rejected by the Council shall be ineligible for membership for a space of one year from date of rejection, except upon the unanimous vote of the Committee.

The Committee shall have power to make by-laws for its government, not inconsistent with the constitution or by-laws of the Society.

RESIGNATION.

XIV.—No resignation of any member shall become effective unless consented to by the Council.

DISQUALIFICATION.

XV.—No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when his proofs of descent or eligibility shall be found to be defective. The Council, after thirty days' notice to such person to substantiate his claim, and upon his failure satisfactorily so to do, may require the Secretary to erase his name from the membership list. The said person shall have a right to appeal to the Society at its next Court or at the General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, the said person's name shall be restored to said membership list.

EXPULSION OR SUSPENSION.

XVI.—Any member, for cause or conduct detrimental or antagonistic to the interest or purposes of the Society, or for just cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society; but no member shall be expelled or suspended unless written charges be presented against such member to the Council. The Council shall give reasonable notice of such charges and afford such member reasonable opportunity to be heard and refute the same. The Council, after hearing such charges, may recommend to the Society the expulsion or suspension of such member, and if the recommendation of the Council be adopted by a majority vote of the members of the Society present at such Court, he shall be so expelled or suspended, and the insignia of said member shall thereupon be returned to the Treasurer of the Society, and his rights therein shall be extinguished or suspended. The Treasurer shall refund to the said member the amount paid for the said insignia.

Special Courts may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interests of the Society may demand, and must be called by the Secretary on the written request of three members. All notices of meetings shall be sent out at least six days before the date of the meeting.

SERVICE OF NOTICE.

XVII.—It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary of any change in his place of residence and of his post-office address.

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP.

XVIII.—Members may receive a certificate of membership, which shall be signed by the Governor, Secretary and Registrar.

ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT.

XIX.—No alteration or amendment of the by-laws shall be made unless notice shall have been duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a Court of the Society.

The Secretary shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to the members of the Society, and state the Court at which the same will be voted upon. No amendment or alteration shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Court voting upon the same.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Society will meet annually in General Court and will hold a banquet on October 10th. This date is selected because it commemorates two most important events in Colonial history.

First—The occupation of Fort Chartres by English troops, October 10th, 1765. By the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10th, 1763, was settled for all time the question which had been in doubt for a century—whether French or English civilization and rule should shape the destinies of this continent. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghenies and the Mississippi were ceded by the French and came into possession of Great Britain. Capt. Thomas Stirling, with a company of the 42d Highlanders, came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt (now Pittsburg), arriving early in October, 1765. On the tenth day of that month he relieved the French commander of Fort Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops who ever set foot in the Illinois country. Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was in its time the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River, in Randolph County, Ill., fifty miles south of St. Louis and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

Second—On October 10th, 1774, occurred the Battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River. This was a most important battle, and the complete victory over the Indians under Cornstalk put an end to their assaults upon our frontiers.

Both these events were important Colonial footsteps in the direction of the West, and hence it seems most appropriate that this day should be selected as the anniversary of the first Society formed west of the Alleghenies.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS AND MEMBERS.

Family tradition will not be accepted by the Society for proof of ancestor's service.

No original or supplemental application will be accepted by the Society that is not complete in the following particulars:

1. Containing a reference for each act of service of ancestor.

2. No cyclopædias or genealogical works to be accepted as authority for service of ancestor, but reference required to documentary records of the various Colonies, published Archives, histories of established reputation, and recognized works of local historical accuracy.

3. Proceedings of Congress as well as the proceedings of the Conventions, Assemblies and Councils of the various Colonies.

4. The pagination of reference in all cases to be required and verified.

5. Reference to original documents to be supported by such documents, together with two type-written copies thereof, the original to be returned to the applicant after verification of copies in the office of the Registrar.

6. All applications must be endorsed by two members of the Society.

The State Society publishes a Register, containing the name and ancestor's service of the members of the Missouri Society, and publishes, free of charge, all supplemental applications. One copy of this book is furnished every member free. Extra copies can be had for $2.00 each.

The rosette to be worn in the upper button-hole of left lapel of the coat may be had of the Treasurer, George T. Parker, south-east corner Broadway and Locust, St. Louis, at a cost of 25 cents.

The insignia, in gold, costing $22.00, or in silver gilt at $12.00, may be ordered through the Registrar. It is optional with members whether they purchase the rosette or insignia.

The General Society issues a Diploma Certificate of Membership, engrossed on heavy parchment, with the signatures of the officers of the General Society and State Society attached. This Diploma is a fine work of art. It is optional with members whether they purchase the same. If desired, it must be ordered through the Registrar of the State Society, and costs $7.75 framed, and express charges to be added from New York to destination.

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATIONS.

When descent can be shown from more than one ancestor as described, supplemental applications may be filed—one for each additional line of descent.

FEES.

The membership fee is $5, and the annual dues $5, which sums must accompany the application.

The General Society also requires a fee of fifty cents for filing every supplemental application, which sum must accompany the same.

Blank applications and any information concerning the Society can be had by addressing the Secretary.

TOMB OF CAPT. JAMES SANDES,

Great-grandson of Archbishop Sandes, at Block Island, R. I., born 1622, died 1695, ancestor of all of the names of Sands-Sandys in America. He married a grandniece of the celebrated Ann Hutchinson, and settled in 1640 at Portsmouth, R. I.; in 1660 he and sixteen others purchased Block Island, R. I., from the Indians and three white men, and removed to the Island, where he was prominent in affairs. The smaller tomb on the right is that of Edward, a son of Capt. James Sandes.

MERCY SANDS.

Granddaughter of James Sands, of Block Island, born 1693 at Long Island, and married Richard Stillwell of New York City; mother of six beautiful daughters, all remarkable women. One became grandmother of the celebrated Lady Holland, another became grandmother of the unfortunate Theodosia Burr, only daughter of Col. Aaron Burr.

From advance sheets of the Sandes-Sandis-Sandys-Sands family in England and America, by James T. Sands, St. Louis.

THIRD LADY HOLLAND, GREAT-GRANDDAUGHTER OF MERCY SANDS.

Celebrated as the friend of Byron, Moore, Sheridan, and all the wits and beaux who frequented her home Holland House, London; also friend of Napoleon 1st and Josephine, and she and the Duchess of Devonshire would don the buff and blue and electioneer for Fox, uncle of Lord Holland. She and her friends sympathized with the Americans during the Revolution. In the British Museum is a snuff-box presented to Napoleon by Pope Pius VI.; Napoleon on his death left it to his friend "Lady Holland." Lord Carlisle wished her to reject the gift: here are two verses from his poem:

"Lady reject the gift, beneath its lid
Discord, and slaughter, and relentless war,
With every plague to wretched man, lie hid—
Let not these loose, to range the world afar:

Say what congenial to his heart of stone
In thy soft bosom could the Tyrant trace?
When does the Dove the Eagle's friendship own
Or the Wolf hold the Lamb in pure embrace?"

But Tom Moore's verse was more consonant to her feelings:

"Gift of the Hero on his dying day
To her, whose pity watch'd for ever nigh,
Oh! cou'd he see the proud, the happy ray
This relic lights up in her generous eye,
Sighing, he'd feel how easy 'tis to pay
A friendship—all his Kingdom cou'd not buy."

MISS THEODOSIA BURR.

Theodosia Burr, daughter of Col. Aaron Burr, Vice President of the United States, and his wife Theodosia Bartow, grand-daughter of Mercy Sands. After the fatal duel with Hamilton, Burr visited Europe and was often the guest of Lady Holland of Holland House, who was a second cousin of his deceased wife; later Burr's misunderstood schemes for the expansion of the United States brought upon him the deep party hatred of his rivals and he was forced into retirement; while sick and dying his affectionate daughter Theodosia, then the wife of Col. Allston, Governor of South Carolina, sailed from Charlestown for New York to see her father; the vessel never after was heard from.

TOMB OF CICELY, WIDOW OF ARCHBISHOP SANDES, AT WOODHAM FERRERS, ESSEX.

On the right-hand side of the escutcheon is inscribed: "Samuel Sandys Knt, eldest son of the said Cicely, who of his love and pietie to his said mother, hath at his own cost erected this monument, in the year of our Lord 1619, being then High Sheriff of the County of Worcester."

On the left side of the escutcheon: "Sir Edwyn Sandys Knt hir 2 sonne. Sir Miles Sandys Knt and Bart 3 sonne. William Sandys who died in his youth. Thomas Sandys Esq. 5 sonne. Henry Sandys Esq. 6 sonne. Geo. Sandys Esq. 7 sonne. Margaret married to Anthony Ancher of Bourne in Kent, Esq. Ann hir 2 daughter married to Sir William Barn of Woolwich." (Horant's Essex II, 34.)

Robert Sandys, eldest son of the above "Thomas Sandys Esq. 5 sonne" married Alice Washington, daughter of Lawrence Washington, of Sulgrave and Brington, who died 1616. She was a niece of Walter Washington, of Radway, Co. Warwick; died 1597, and whose widow Alice, married John Woodward, of Stratford-upon-Avon. She was a first cousin of John Washington, of Radway, Co. Warwick, (son of Walter and Alice Washington of same place), who married Mary, daughter of George Danvers, of Billsworth, Northampton, Esq., and who had a son named George Washington. She was aunt of Col. Henry Washington, d. 1663, whose widow Elizabeth, married Samuel Sandys Esq., of Ombersley, Worcester, a grandson of above Sir Samuel Sandys "eldest son." Also sister of Margaret (widow of Thornton, d. 1666) who married Sir ——— Sandys Knt.

She (Alice, wife of Robert Sandys), was aunt of John Washington, born 1633, died 1684, married Anne Pope, sister of Thomas Pope of Bristol, merchant, which John Washington emigrated to Virginia, and beeame the great-grandfather of GEORGE WASHINGTON, the father of his country. (Waters' Gleanings.)

In Memoriam

James McCord.

BORN JANUARY 7, 1826.
DIED SEPTEMBER 24, 1903.

James McCord was born in Randolph County, Virginia, January 7, 1826, and died at his home in St. Joseph, Missouri, September 24, 1903. His father was William McCord, born in Albemarle County, Virginia, where he married Sallie Moss Field, daughter of Capt. John Field, an officer of the War of 1812. He afterwards removed to Missouri with his family, living first at Cape Girardeau, and afterwards at Versailles, where he died in 1839. James McCord, then a mere lad, with only the advantages of such common school education as was given in those days, was compelled at once to commence the earnest work of life. His beginnings were in Central Missouri, and in 1846 he moved to Savannah, where he formed a co-partnership with Abraham Nave, which lasted until the death of Mr. Nave a few years ago. He had hardly attained his majority when, as a member of this firm, he made a successful business trip to California, crossing the then almost unknown plains and the Rocky Mountain regions, with merchandise and cattle. In 1854 he was married to Miss Mary Hallack, of Kentucky, who survives him. Also two daughters and five sons survive him.

In 1857 he and Mr. Nave established the first exclusively wholesale grocery house of Western Missouri at St. Joseph, with which he remained until his death. During this period branch houses were established at Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and at prominent points in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado, all of which were under his immediate supervision. No man in mercantile pursuits was better known in St. Joseph and the territory tributary than Mr. McCord. No one could come within the sphere of his influence without feeling the influence of his masterful personality. While he did not court popularity, even the most casual acquaintance would recognize his uniform courtesy. And those most often brought in contact with him found in him a genial spirit lighting up the realities of business with evidence of a rare humor and a close friendship, which was never withdrawn from the true hearted. He was unerring in his choice of lieutenants for his vast and diversified interests, and was to them liberal and just. Kind and considerate to his employes, he never failed to advise and warn, as would a father, those whom he felt needed guidance and admonition.

His mind was not so absorbed in business that he did not take a delight in good literature, and he could state the substance of his reading with a conciseness and accuracy seldom attained by scholars and professional men.

The greatest of his qualities was his strict integrity, which never for temporary gain permitted the slightest deviation from the paths of rectitude or sought injustice to those with whom he dealt. With such qualities of head and heart, of habit and training through so many years, he was at the time of his death the acknowledged leader of the merchants of the Western Missouri Valley.

Mr. McCord's membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was derived through the service of his ancestor, William Wood, lieutenant of the Albemarle County (Virginia) Militia, in active service for the defense and protection of the frontier against the Indians September, 1758.

Clark Hamilton Sampson.

BORN SEPTEMBER 17, 1850.
DIED MARCH 31, 1904.

Merchant and manufacturer, was born September 17, 1850, in the town of Hatfield, Hampshire County, Massachusetts. Son of Elijah N. and Agnes (Hubbard) Sampson. The founder of this branch of the Sampson family in America was Abraham Sampson, who came from England and joined the Plymouth Colony two years after the landing of the Mayflower, and was a member of the Duxbury Militia Company in 1643. Abraham Sampson married a daughter of Samuel Nash, lieutenant of the Duxbury Militia Company, and their son, Isaac, married Lydia Standish, a daughter of Alexander and Sarah (Alden) Standish, son and daughter respectively of Captain Myles Standish and John Alden. Among the ancestors, therefore, of Mr. Sampson, in the paternal line, were at least three conspicuous in the Mayflower compact. And his mother also belonged to an old New England family, his great-grandfather being an officer in the Revolutionary War.

When twenty-one years of age Mr. Sampson became secretary of a manufacturing corporation at Northampton, Massachusetts, and became connected with the Corticelli Silk Mills, and for some time represented this interest in New York City. In 1879 he came to St. Louis and opened a wholesale establishment for the distribution of the products of the Corticelli Silk Mills throughout the West and South. The silk business which he established steadily expanded until it now occupies a conspicuous position among the commercial institutions of St. Louis. A man of practical ideas, large resourcefulness, and superior organizing capacity, he was conspicuous for his energy and prompt action; candid and courteous in manner, and inflexible in the rectitude of his business transactions, he wielded a large influence in commercial circles and in the devotion to the welfare of his adopted city.

Notwithstanding his large business interests, he always responded to the demands of the public for his services. He, at divers times, made enviable records as chairman of finance commitees, organized for the purpose of forwarding public movements, and became famous for raising funds of large proportions in this connection. He was chairman of the Finance Committee which provided funds for the entertainment of visiting veterans of the Grand Army Encampment, held in St. Louis in 1887, and organized a committee of five hundred members, and in a single day raised a fund of $90,000.00 for entertainment purposes. He was chairman of the Finance Committee which collected necessary funds and erected the first monument to General U. S. Grant.

Mr. Sampson's religious affiliations were with the Methodist Church, with which he was officially connected as trustee of the Lindell Avenue Methodist Church of St. Louis.

He was founder of the New England Society of the City of St. Louis. He was president of the Society of Sons of the American Revolution and Deputy Governor of the Society of Colonial Wars in Missouri.

In 1881 Mr. Sampson was married at Long Branch, New Jersey, to Miss Mary Ryer, daughter of Mrs. Caroline (Cook) Ryer, great-granddaughter of Major Daniel Denniston, of New York, an officer on General Washington's staff in the War of the Revolution. Their children are Marjorie, Hazel, Maybell and Helen Sampson.

Mr. Sampson died March 31, 1904, and is buried in the family lot in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis.

Francis McCord.

BORN DECEMBER 11, 1865.
DIED MARCH 30, 1905.

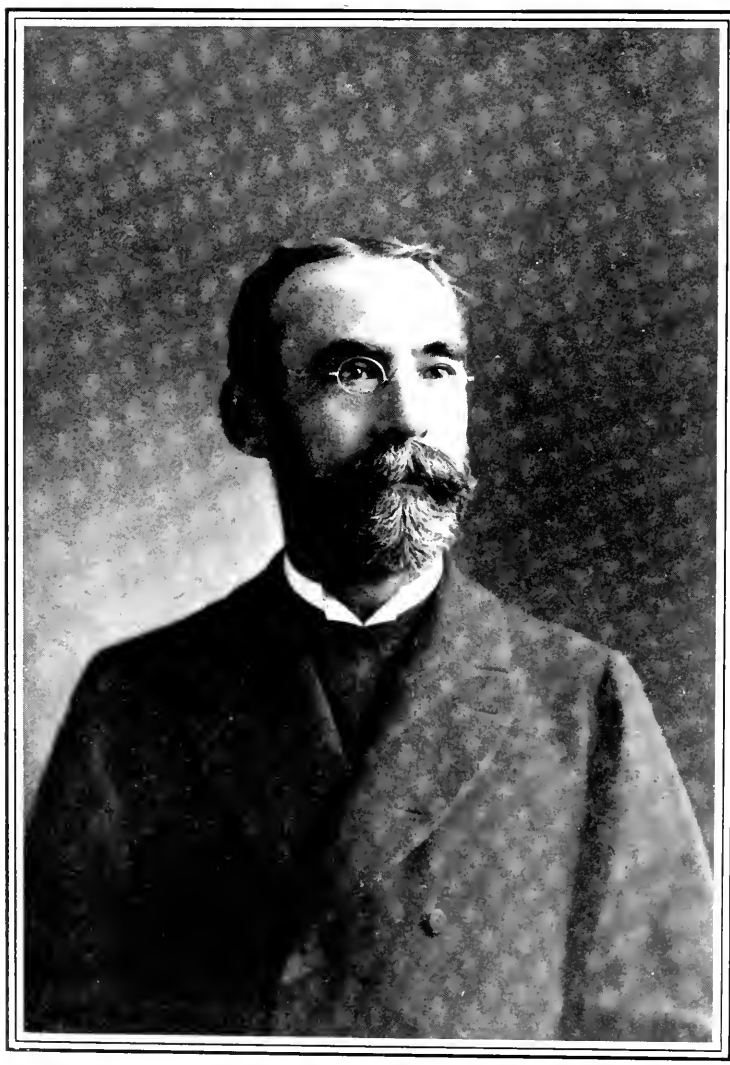
Francis McCord was born in St. Joseph, Missouri, December 11, 1865. He was the fourth son of the late James McCord and Mary (Hallack) McCord. His boyhood was spent in St. Joseph, where he received his early education. Afterwards attending the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington for three years. In September, 1894, he married Miss Juliette Buell, a daughter of the late George W. Buell, of St. Joseph, who, with three children, Francis, Jr., Clara and John Minor, survive him. He was a member of the Smith-McCord Dry Goods Company, of Kansas City, and in 1897 was a director of the Commercial Club of that city. In 1898 he moved to New York, where he lived until his health failed, in 1902. The remainder of his life was spent in such climates as might benefit and restore his health, living the greater part of the time in Asheville, North Carolina, where he died March 30, 1905.

He was a man of innate refinement, courteous and charming manners, generous to a fault; sympathetic, charitable, sincere in his likes and dislikes, and had a keen sense of humor, and a most retentive memory.

He found his greatest pleasure in music and books. His most beautiful characteristic was his love for and devotion to his mother, and his loyalty to his friends. He was greatly beloved by all who knew him well.

Mr. McCord's membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was derived through the service of Captain John Paxton (1715-1787), lieutenant in Captain Thomas Harris' Company, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Provincials, in active service in defense of the frontier, 1748. Also in service in Virginia Indian Wars. Also through the service of William Wood (————) lieutenant of the Albemarle County, Virginia, Militia in active service for the defense and protection of the frontier against the Indians September, 1758.

FRANCIS McCORD.



REV. WILLIAM SHORT, D. D.

Rev. William Short, D. D.

BORN MARCH 10, 1845.
DIED OCTOBER 26, 1905.

Rev. William Short was born March 10, 1845, at Ridgefield, Connecticut. His parents were the Rev. David Hawkins Short, D. D., and Mary Eliza Purdy. Descended from Clement Short, who settled at Berwick, Massachusetts, before 1666.

Mr. Short was seventh in descent from Deputy Governor Roger Ludlow, of Massachusetts. Eighth in descent from Sergeant Edward Riggs, who served in the Pequot War, 1637. Sixth in descent from Captain Ebenezer Johnson, and eighth in descent from Lieutenant William French, deputy to the General Court, 1663, and lieutenant in King Philip's War.

Mr. Short received his early education and preparation for college from his father, and graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, 1869. Was ordained in 1872 at Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Connecticut, where he received his theological education. For twelve years he had charge of Holy Trinity Chapel, Brooklyn, New York, under the late Dr. Charles H. Hall. In 1884, failing health obliged him to make a change of climate, and he went to Jackson, Mississippi, where he was rector of St. Andrew's Church. After five years of service he accepted the rectorship of St. Peter's Church, St. Louis, Missouri. Under his pastorate the church grew from a comparatively small congregation to first place among the Episcopal churches of the city. Apart from his duties in the church, he was interested in social and economic movements for public betterment.

In February, 1878, Mr. Short married Mary W. Hondlow, who survives him with four sons and one daughter.

Col. Charles Parsons.

BORN JANUARY 24, 1824.
DIED SEPTEMBER 15, 1905.

Charles Parsons was born at Homer, Cortland County, New York, January 24, 1824. He was the third son of Lewis B. and Lucina (Hoar) Parsons. His father was the son of Captain Charles Parsons, an officer of the Revolutionary War, who served for over seven years from Ticonderoga, Valley Forge and Monmouth (where he was severely wounded) to Yorkton. Colonel Parsons was the sixth in descent from Cornet Joseph Parsons, who emigrated from England to Boston in 1636, and became a large land owner in and about the present sites of Springfield and Northampton, Massachusetts. From this ancestor and fifteen others that took part in Colonial Wars, Colonel Parsons derived his membership in this Society.

Colonel Parsons was educated at Homer and Gouverneur, New York, and in 1851 removed to Keokuk, Iowa, where he established and continued for years a successful banking business.

During the Civil War he entered the Union Army, and was made captain, and placed in charge of army, rail and river transportation at St. Louis. A position which he filled with such eminent success that he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Near the close of the war he was made cashier, and in 1870 president of the State Savings Association, now the State National Bank of St. Louis, which position he held until his death, on September 15, 1905. A period of service in this institution of over forty-one years. For twenty-two years Colonel Parsons was annually elected president of the St. Louis Clearing House. He was for some years president of the American Bankers'Association, and was chosen to preside over the World's Congress of Bankers and Financiers at Chicago Exposition in 1893. He was president of the Humane Society and the New England Society, commander of the Loyal Legion, and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and a director in many public and charitable institutions.

He traveled extensively and gathered a valuable art collection, which he bequeathed to the Washington University of St. Louis, of which institution he was a director.

Colonel Parsons was married in 1857 to Miss Martha A. Pettus, who died in 1889, leaving no children, and in whose memory he endowed the Martha Parsons Free Hospital for children.

Daniel Reece Wolfe.

BORN JUNE 27, 1840.
DIED JUNE 1, 1906.

Daniel Reece Wolfe was born in Parkersburg, West Virginia, June 27, 1840. When a young man he went to Wheeling, West Virginia, remaining there a number of years, and later going to Ironton, Ohio, where he was engaged in the iron business. In 1878 he moved to St. Louis, still continuing in the same business until his death.

Mr. Wolfe was very active in all Christian work, was for ten years president of the State Sunday School Association, and for twenty years he conducted the great Bethel Mission for the poor and neglected in St. Louis.

Christmas was a happy time in his life, when with his family he could help give from a thousand to twelve hundred people a Merry Christmas. He was an elder in the Second Presbyterian Church, and for a long time clerk of the session.

June 1st he was visiting in Dayton, Ohio, with his wife, having some business in Cincinnati he left in the morning apparently in the best of health, expecting to return at night, but in the afternoon, while sitting in the hotel, waiting for the train and reading his paper, a passing guest thought he looked strangely, and going to him, "he was not, for God took him." He was laid at rest in the Newton Cemetery, Massachusetts, June 4, 1906.

In 1863 he was married to Miss Good, daughter of Judge Good, of Wheeling, West Virginia, who died in 1881, and in 1884 he was married again to Miss Colby, daughter of Gardner Colby, of Boston, Massachusetts, who survives him; also four children, Mrs. F. L. Anderson, of Newton Center, Massachusetts; Mr. M. G. Wolfe, of Hartford, Connecticut; Mrs. George Harkness of St. Louis, and Miss Joanna G. Wolfe of St. Louis.

Mr. Wolfe's membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was through the service of his ancestor, Reece Wolfe (1733-1797), lieutenant of the Sussex County (Delaware) Militia, 1756-'58.
